Standing In For Peter Berns CEO of The Arc US, We Are Happy To Welcome Mr. Mohan Mehra, President of the Arc US!

Mohan Mehra, former Westchester Arc president and current Westchester Arc and Westchester Arc Foundation board member, has been elected president of the board of directors for The Arc. He has served as secretary since 2008 and has been a member of The Arc board since 2004.

In his position, Mr. Mehra plays a larger role in helping direct the areas of fundraising, health promotion, and disability prevention. He also continues efforts to shape the association's public policy goals and be responsible for major governance decisions.

Mehra was president of Westchester Arc's board of directors from 2001 to 2005. Prior to that, he served as treasurer and chaired committees responsible for adult day services and strategic planning. He retired from Kraft Foods with 25 years of experience in business strategy, marketing and new business development. He earned an M.S. in operations research from Cornell University and attended the Multinational Marketing Program at Harvard Business School.

"It is my privilege to serve as the new President of The Arc," said Mohan Mehra who has served on The Arc's Board of Directors since 2004. "This remarkable group shares the quality of being deeply committed to improving the lives of people with I/DD and each brings talent, energy, insight and experience. This is an exciting time for The Arc as we assume our position as the largest human service organization in this country serving those with intellectual and developmental disabilities. I look forward to working with board members to move us into the future."
