

The Social Model

Definition of Disability

The loss or limitation of opportunities for persons with physical, sensory or intellectual impairments to partake in the ordinary life of the community on an equal level with others is due to physical, structural and social barriers.